

Information for applicants for data protection and processing of personal data by imec Messtechnik GmbH (Art. 13 GDPR)

Purposes of processing & legal basis

In connection with the application for a job, imec Messtechnik GmbH receives the usual personal data and information from applicants in connection with such cases (eg address, telephone number, e-mail, certificates, qualifications). In the context of the initiation of an employment relationship, the data are legally collected and processed based on § 26 BDSG 2017 and Art. 6 para. 1 lit. b collected and processed.

Duration of storage

The duration of storage / retention of your data depends on the legal deletion and retention periods. For applications and the personal information provided with the application, the retention period is 6 months, provided no employment relationship has been entered upon.

Further processing, disclosure and disclosure and consequences of non-provision

We do not process your data for any purpose other than the above.

Our external IT service providers may have access to your data as part of their maintenance and administration activities. A transfer of your data to other bodies or third parties does not take place.

We collect from you only such data, which are indispensable for the initiation of an employment relationship and the staffing. Failure to provide mandatory information would result in our not being able to include you in the candidate list.

Rights of the persons concerned (Art. 15 - Art. 22 GDPR)

According to the processing operations taking place at imec Messtechnik GmbH, the following rights arise:

You can request information regarding your personal data processed by us. Upon request, you will also receive a copy or a file with your data. You may also request, in the course of your right to data portability, that we transfer the data you have stored with us to another person in charge. You also have the right to request that we correct your data, delete it, or restrict processing. There is also the right that you can withdraw your application at any time. We will then no longer process your data. For the exercise of these rights, a simple letter to the responsible body is sufficient (imec Messtechnik GmbH, see contact details below).

Right to Complain

Furthermore, we are legally obliged to inform you that you have a right of appeal if you find that your personal data is not processed by a responsible person in accordance with the law or does not properly implement your rights in connection with your personal data.

Responsible for such complaints is the supervisory authority (State Commissioner for Data Protection and Freedom of Information Baden-Württemberg).

For questions regarding the processing of your personal data by imec Messtechnik GmbH, we are at your disposal.
